

Description

On July 1, 2009 OCC, Board, FDIC, OTS, NCUA, and FTC (Agencies) published final rules to implement the accuracy and integrity and direct dispute provisions in section 312 of the Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act of 2003 (FACT Act). The new rules are effective on July 1, 2010 and apply to those that furnish information relating to consumers to credit reporting agencies for inclusion in a consumer credit report.

Features

The Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act of 2003 (FACT Act) accuracy and integrity rules:

- ◆ Implement the requirement that the Agencies issue guidelines for use by furnishers regarding the accuracy and integrity of the information about consumers that they furnish to consumer reporting agencies (CRAs);
- ◆ Prescribe regulations requiring furnishers to establish reasonable policies and procedures for implementing the guidelines; and
- ◆ Implement the requirement that the Agencies issue regulations identifying the circumstances under which a furnisher must re-investigate disputes about the accuracy of information contained in a consumer report based on a direct request from a consumer.

A "furnisher" includes an entity that furnishes information relating to consumers to one or more consumer reporting agencies for inclusion in a consumer report.

Upon completion of this course participants will understand:

- ◆ The policies and procedures that each furnisher must establish and implement.
- ◆ How to conduct a reasonable investigation of a direct dispute.
- ◆ The required content of a direct dispute notice.
- ◆ Frivolous or irrelevant disputes and how such disputes must be handled.
- ◆ The interagency guidelines.

What is an On-Demand Course?

It is a training tool that gives you and your staff on-demand six months unlimited access to a variety of topics presented by names you trust—for one low price. Each course includes a video presentation from the speaker, audio and slides—plus a detailed manual for download and a Question and Answer Forum for answers anytime.

The process is simple. Enroll in a course, pay online with a credit card, and receive an e-mail immediately with your link to your course. The same login information and link is used to access all courses you purchase using your account. Your computer will need speakers to receive the audio presentation. There are no special hardware or software requirements to view the program. Presentations lasting in excess of one hour are broken down into 30 minute segments to make it easier to manage class participation time.

Special note to Trainers: This system gives you the ability to develop your online training library. Using one link, user name and password anyone in your organization is able to access the program for six months. The manual and other supporting materials are available to anyone with the login information. You forward the login information, assign the courses to watch and let the learning begin.
